

Benediction at 24th Convocation Musical
Louisville, KY
September 23, 2010

Let us go now with the blessed assurance that the Almighty God of our Fathers and Mothers goes with us.

As God is a mighty fortress in our lives; May we always lift up our heads.

And keep the vows we have made to follow Jesus; Always waiting on Jesus for our direction.

May God's name be glorified!

When we have trouble, may we remember that God is standing by ready to send a change in our lives, as we make spiritual preparations to go up yonder.

May God continue to be "patient with us" and may we be patient with one another.

For all that God has done for us – redeemed and set us free—just because He is God; May we always be sold out, for the one who died and rose again for you and me.

Amen.
